Expect Races at Mineola Hotel to Attract Hundreds

Ideal Weather, Large Entry Will Assure Real Entertainment Sunday

The fourth of a series of races being sponsored by the Chain O' Lakes boat club will be held Sunday afternoon at the Mineola Hotel at Fox Lake. The races are scheduled to start at 2 p. m. and will include a full program of races for the various classes, according to F. S. Pavitt, secretary of the club.

The Mineola grounds are ideal for an event of this kind as the banks of the lake there are high and spectators are able to see the entire race course. The races will be run on a measured mile course, of oval shape.

High point of interest will be the class "E" 175 horse power class, with entries expected by Jos. Frieslinger, with the "Tramp," Mel Bue-low, "Chickie," Ches. Molinari, the "Ann"; Commodore Eddie Zender, the "Hex"; Bob Fratolca, the "Got Damp"; and in addition several new boats are expected to make an appearance, with the "Panic" which made a fine showing two years ago, a possibility.

The class "D" race will feature the "Rum Runner" in its first appearance under new ownership, and Earl Hucker's "Peggy G" as well as other boats. The "Rum Runner" and the "Peggy G" have been running neck and neck all season, with the "Rum Runner" having a slight edge since the sinking of the "Peggy G". Hucker, however, has been gaining a little speed each week and it is expected that a close finish will be a result of this race.

The 103 and under class has had more entries all season than the other classes and Kacer of Antioch, will tangle with Lou Balus for first honors in this division.

Three or more outboard events will complete the racing program for the day. The events will feature Class C service and Class C racing runabouts as well as an outboard free-for-all. "Bill" Thompson, of Channel Lake and Antioch, will tackle the racers with his new 50 horse power motor on a Miller hull and several newcomers have indicated that they will be on hand to challenge the favorites.

Fireman's Dance Well Attended

A complete success from every standpoint was the Antioch Volunteer Fire Department's dance at the new warehouse at Pregoner's resort Saturday evening. Hundreds of merry-makers crowded the floor and the dancing continued until two o'clock. The department held a meeting Tuesday night and figures showed that a tidy sum would be realized after payment of the bills incurred in holding the dance.

VanPatten Honored

Former Chief Lou Van Patten was presented a gold chief's badge in recognition of his long and faithful service to the department at the meeting. Chief Vos made the presentation and touched on Van Patten's long record of service to the department and made an honorary chief in recognition of his long and faithful service to the department at the department in making the presentation.

Other business conducted at the meeting concerned the annual picnic. The date, which had been tentatively set for July 28, was set back until the middle of August because a number of members indicated that they would be unable to attend if it were held July 28.

MRS. BESSIE TRIEGER DIES OF HEART ATTACK WED. IN COLORADO

Antioch residents were saddened this week by news of the sudden passing of Mrs. Bessie Trieger, life long resident of the community, and active in the social life of Antioch. News of her passing came to Antioch yesterday from Colorado Springs, Colorado, where she had gone in company with a daughter, Mrs. Daniel Nugent, Norwood Park, Illinois, to visit a grandson, Daniel Nugent, Jr.

A heart attack was responsible for her sudden passing at 4 a. m. Wednesday, July 24, at a hotel in Colorado Springs. Although she had been under the care of a doctor for some time, her death was a shock to friends and relatives.

She was born in Avon township on June 27, 1875, and spent all of her life in western Lake county, having lived in Antioch township for more than fifty years and in the village for the past nine years. Throughout her life she was active in social and church work, having been a past matron of the Antioch chapter, O. E. S., and was interested in many other activities.

Her husband, Barney Trieger, preceded her in death nine years ago. Survivors include two sons, Arthur, Antioch; Lester, Chicago; a daughter, Mrs. Pearl Nugent, Norwood Park; a brother, William Darby, Colorado, and five grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held from the Strang Funeral home Monday, July 29, at 2 p. m. and will be conducted by the Rev. W. C. Henslee. Interment will be in Grass Lake Cemetery.

Food Poisoning Is Big Hazard in Summer Time

The summer season, with its outdoor picnics, casual living and healthy release from indoor living, also brings its own assortment of health hazards.

One that is particularly to be guarded against during the summer months is food poisoning. Although food poisoning may occur at any time of the year, summer conditions are especially conducive to the organisms which many contaminate foodstuffs.

Foods which are particularly susceptible to poisoning are milk, salads, pies, eclairs, cakes, canned foods and meat.

One fact that every housewife should be aware of is that taste, odor and appearance cannot be relied upon to tell when food is spoiled.

The symptoms of food poisoning appear within a few hours after eating contaminated food. They are marked by severe abdominal pains and nausea and vomiting. The afflicted person feels faint and is noticeably weak. Thirst, headache, dizziness and a light fever usually accompany the affliction.

Mild cases pass off in most instances within 24 hours, but in severe cases the symptoms may last three or four weeks. Usually every person who eats the contaminated food is affected, although the effects will vary because (Continued on page ten)

Lions to Co-operate in Legion Homecoming Sunday, September 1

Legion Homecoming to Coincide With Carnival Dates

Thirty-nine members of the Antioch Lions club attended a meeting of the club Monday evening. The dinner meeting was held at the 19th Hole, Route 59. Five guests, all members of the Antioch Rescue squad were present.

No action was taken on a plan whereby the Lions club would relieve the financial load in connection with the rescue work. The matter was given over for further action to the directors, who will meet with members of the squad in the near future.

Other matters discussed included consideration of plans to assist the American Legion Post in its Homecoming Celebration, which will take place September 1. The homecoming will honor World War II veterans, and since the date falls on one of the days when the Lions Annual Carnival will be in progress, the Legion committee sought to help of the club to co-ordinate the two affairs.

The celebration, as now planned, will feature a parade with six or more bands, floats, and other entertainment. Roman B. Vos, Legion spokesman, was assured fullest co-operation of the club.

Andrew Dalgaard has been associated with the grocery business in Antioch for more than twenty years, having been employed by Hil-dobrandt and Shultis grocery before going into business for himself fifteen years ago.

According to present plans Andrew will assist in the management of the store for the time being.

The funeral services were under the charge of Rev. W. C. Henslee, and were held at the Strang Funeral home. Burial took place in Hillside cemetery.

She was born February 23, 1886, in Chicago, the daughter of Adam and Whilomne Kautz. Her marriage to Einar Sorenson, well-known in political circles in Lake county and a resort operator for many years at Channel Lake, took place on March 12, 1908 in Chicago. For the past eighteen years they have made their home in and around Antioch.

Besides her husband, Einar, she is survived by two sons, Edward, of Antioch and Raymond, Waukegan; a daughter, Mrs. Eleanor Nixon, Monmouth, Illinois, and four grand children, Raymond, Donna Mae, Barbara Jean and Mary Joyce. County Leader Wins 4-H Movie Story Contest

Clarence Snetsinger, 4-H club leader from Lake County, Illinois, has been judged top national winner among 800 local leaders in the national 4-H movie story-writing contest. His story will be used in the production of a 4-H movie titled "Where the Road Turns Right." It is based on his own experiences with the Lake Zurich Junior 4-H club, of which he has been leader for 15 years. His award is an all-expense trip to the 25th Anniversary National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next December.

Since the Lake Zurich club was organized in 1930, Snetsinger has been either co-leader or leader. His clover leader pin was awarded him in 1944. He has also served as president of the Lake County Farm Bureau and is a member of the Lions club, village and high school boards and Masonic Lodge.

Living on a 120-acre farm, Snetsinger is a joint tenant with his father. Two of his three sons are 4-H club members.

The movie for which the winning story was written is designed to stimulate interest in 4-H club work among rural youth and to help reach the goal of three million members by 1950. Produced in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the State Extension Services and the National 4-H club News, it will be sponsored by the Sears-Roebuck Foundation. The date of its premiere is to be announced.

Thieves Snatch Pocketbook From Katie Tinker

Miss Katie Tinker, 1028 Main street, was badly frightened Monday evening when two youths snatched her purse on Main street about ten p. m.

She was going home from the Telephone office, where she is employed as an operator, when the theft occurred. The two young men had followed her from Lake street and Main and she was almost home when they overtook her and seized the purse and ran.

Neighbors were attracted by her screams, but were unable to see the thieves. The purse contained a small amount of money. Efforts are being made by local and county police officers to hunt down the thieves, but no progress has been reported.

Vets May Enter Normal Schools and Jr. College

Veterans who have not yet arranged to enter college this fall will find a restricted field, especially in the larger universities, but it is pointed out by Service Officer, A. F. Reutlinger, American Legion Home, Waukegan, Ill., of the Illinois Veterans Commission that there are still several hundred openings at the state teachers' colleges and normal universities.

In addition, a number of junior colleges have made room for veterans, and the University of Illinois will care for several thousand through its 29 extension centers and the U. of I. Navy Pier branch in Chicago.

To secure tuition-free admission to the University of Illinois or the state-supported normal schools and teachers' colleges, the veteran is required to submit his application direct to the registrar of the particular school, together with his original discharge certificate, which will be stamped and returned to him.

Service officers of the Illinois Veterans Commission, on duty in every county in Illinois, will assist veterans in filing for educational and all other benefits due them as a result of their service.

LOON LAKE SUMMER RESIDENT IS KILLED BY TRAIN SATURDAY

Failing to see a Soo Line train coming from the south Saturday night, Mrs. Eleanor Charvat, who was driving east at the Loon Lake crossing, drove onto the tracks and was badly shaken up and cut about the head when a train struck her car.

The train struck the rear of the right side of the car and spun it around, causing the instant death of Mrs. Charvat's mother-in-law, Mrs. Anna Charvat, the only other passenger in the automobile. The older woman was decapitated by broken glass from the windshield of the car, and was beyond help when the Rescue squad arrived at the scene.

Morse Says Voters Must Be Registered to Cast Nov. Ballot

Voting By Affidavit Will Not be Allowed in Nov. Election

County Clerk Jay B. Morse today issued a warning that in order to vote at the general election on November 5 it will be absolutely necessary to have registered. The permanent registration law which affects Lake County and the other downstate counties in Illinois was enacted in 1941, but up until now a person not on the registered list could vote by affidavit.

The County Clerk's office today started mailing out verification of registration cards to every registered voter in Lake County. Citizens who receive these cards and whose names and addresses are the same as shown on the cards can rest assured that they are qualified voters. Persons who have changed addresses since registering and have not requested a transfer of their registration will not receive a card, because the state law prohibits forwarding of same and it will be necessary for them to have the corrections made or they will NOT be allowed to vote.

The registration bureau in the County Clerk's office, Room 102 of the county courthouse in Waukegan is open every day but Sunday, 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. Monday through Friday, and until noon on Saturday. County Clerk Morse has further arranged for the convenience of citizens to open branch registration offices in the various townships of the county.

Voters of various townships of western Lake county may register at the following places:

Over 65,000 men and women are registered in Lake County, but Mr. Morse estimates that there is in the neighborhood of 12,000 eligible voters who have failed to get their names on the registration lists. The law provides that any man or woman not yet 21 years old, but who will reach that age on or before November 5, can register now.

All registrations and corrections in registration must be made not later than October 7. Citizens not properly registered at the close of business on that date will not be able to vote in November. Mr. Morse points out there is but one exception to that rule, and that is in the case of ex-service personnel, men or women discharged less than 60 days before election. Citizens in this category will be permitted to vote by affidavit. However, the county clerk strongly recommends that wherever possible these people register, as it will expedite their voting. Those still in the Armed Forces, of course, can vote without being registered, but all ex-service people with the one exception cited must be registered by October 7 or they will disfranchise themselves.

"If citizens who have not registered or those who must correct present registrations act now, it will save them time, be less expensive to the taxpayers, and make it better for our office," Mr. Morse said.

Survivors are her husband, Edward, and three sons, Edward, Jr., and Robert, of Chicago and Clarence, of Antioch, one grand child and a brother, Frank Hillstrand, of Chicago.

A Reckless Gamble

The Cresser Bill, relating to the railroad retirement and unemployment insurance systems, which has passed the House and is now pending in the Senate, should not become law in its present form—and should not under any circumstances be brought to a vote until it has been given the most searching examination and debate.

Major objections to the bill are apparent. First, it would greatly widen the gap between benefits paid railroad workers under the railroad retirement and unemployment insurance systems, and benefits paid other workers under the general Social Security Law.

Second, it would increase the cost to the railroads of railroad retirement and unemployment insurance by about $100,000,000 a year. In the long run, this added cost would have to be borne by all users of transportation.

Third, this increase would be for the benefit of a group of workers who have just been given an 18½ cents an hour wage increase, and whose wage increases since the beginning of the war have averaged more than 50 per cent.

Fourth, the bill provides for payment of sick and accident benefits to a wide range of persons, some of whom have only incidental connection with the railroad business, and all of whom would receive the benefits whether the disability was caused by, or in any way related to, their employment.

Fifth, the bill would impose taxes on railroad pay rolls amounting to 15½ per cent, of which almost two-thirds would be paid by the employing road. This tax, according to the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, would be insufficient to pay the costs.

Sixth, if other workers were to be treated as well as railroad men would be under this bill, the total cost of government social security would reach the astronomical figure of $20,000,000,000 a year.

In the words of one authority, "The bill, as it stands, is a reckless gamble. It increases the benefits for a selected class of workers. The costs would be borne . . . in the last analysis by the shippers, workers and consumers of the country. And, finally, it leaves the railroad retirement and pension system upon a basis found by disinterested actuaries to be definitely unsound."

The People Pay All The Costs

Despite many theories to the contrary, the Seattle Times observes, "The government of a nation is wholly dependent upon the people for financial support. . . . Government produces nothing. People pay the costs of their government—all the costs."

The Times describes the enormous inroads made by government into the pocketbooks of the people. In the early days, the government found sufficient support in indirect taxation—the "duties, imports and excises" specified by the Constitution. Then came direct taxation in the form of the income tax, with its steadily ascending rates. After that came the withholding tax idea—under which a certain proportion of each worker's weekly or monthly pay check is paid into the Federal Treasury to support some service or other. The Social Security law which, as the Times says, is based on the premise that "all the people were too unthrifty to provide their own welfare and old age," is the prize example of this.

Now the country is threatened with one more bite in the form of the proposed, compulsory National Health Bill, generally known as the Wagner-Murray-Dingell Bill. To quote the Times again, "The President, some members of Congress and some government agencies have decided that the people, as a whole, are unable to take care of their health, and government must do it for them."

"After the health bill, the logical succession of laws must be for more pay roll withholding to provide the balanced diet, the proper apparel, and the right kind of homes for all the people—all to be prescribed by government."

"What the government may try to do from there on is anybody's guess; but the safest guess is that by that time there will be nothing more of earned income to withhold."

If the American people are at last ready to admit that they are completely incapable of caring for themselves, and for making their own decisions as free agents, government will of course step in and order our lives. And, if the American people accept that premise, every thing the country stood for, everything that made the country great—private opportunity and personal liberty—is irretrievably gone.

Stew Covers

The home economists say that by making a cover for stews, we can stretch the servings of meat even further. A pastry top not only stretches the flavor but adds a nice body to the stew. A layer of mashed potatoes, rounds of biscuit dough or corn-meal mush brushed with melted fat all can be used successfully on top of a deep dish of stew. Of course, the crust is browned in the oven just before serving.

"I REALLY DON'T FEEL LIKE
PRODUCING TODAY, MABEL, IT'S SO STUFFY IN HERE!"

"Sometimes I think the boss expects too much of us girls. How can we work at our best when we're enveloped in a blanket of hot, stagnant air . . . when we're too busy swinging on the pesky flies that delight in hanging around this oven? I notice he doesn't enjoy himself in here either . . ."

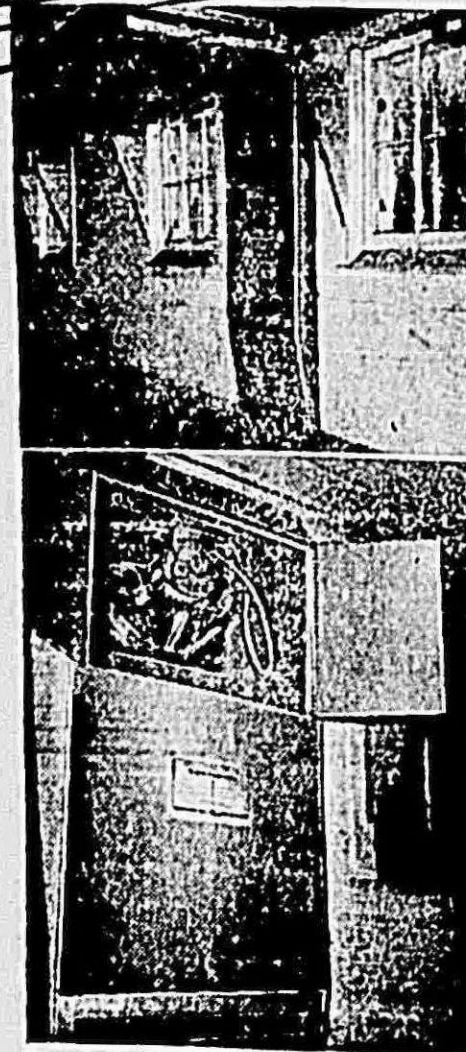

The girls are right—Barns with poor ventilation please neither man nor beast. But farmers who have ventilating systems in their dairy barns will tell you that they do a swell job of keeping cows cool, contented, and in a milk-producing mood. Keeps them healthy, too, by providing oceans of fresh air without drafts . . . by maintaining cooler, more constant temperatures regardless of the outside air. What's more, barn ventilation eliminates the moisture condensation which rots timbers, and quickly exits undesirable barn odors which are frequently picked up by milk before it is marketed.

What to do about it? Next time you're in town, talk over barn ventilation with your dealer. Learn how cow-conditioned air—clear and clean, dry and odorless—pays dividends in healthier cattle, increased production. He'll gladly discuss fan sizes, fan locations, and costs . . . will show you how easy and economical it is to install a barn ventilating system.

MORE GOOD NEWS!

Electricity for barn ventilation and other farm chores is now available to more than 91% of the farms in the area served by this company.

Farewell Foul Air! An easily installed barn ventilating system exhausts stale air and odors . . . draws in oceans of fresh air that make a barn a more comfortable, healthier place for live-stock. Thermostatic controls make the ventilating system attention-free, economical to operate.

Spreading Empire
Canada, Australia, South Africa and New Zealand are four British dominions whose territories spread over more than 7 million square miles — nearly a seventh of the earth's surface. Their total population, about 31 1/2 million, is proportionately much less—roughly 1/70 of the world's inhabitants.

Desert Myth
The old wheeze that ostriches
"bury their heads in the sand" was probably started by early desert nomads who saw ostriches feeding on the horizon. From this distance the birds' heads would appear to be "buried in the sands." Usually the ostrich depends on his great speed for safety.

Lura Jean Minto Becomes Bride of Mr. Johaningsmeir

The Rev. L. H. Messersmith heard the nuptial vows of Miss Lura Jean Minto and Marshall Johaningsmeir at rites July 21, in Millburn Congregational church. Miss Minto is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Minto, of Antioch, and Mr. Johaningsmeir is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Johaningsmeir, of Kansas City, Missouri.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was dressed in a gown of white sheer crepe, fashioned with long full skirt, net yoke and lace ruffling around yoke and cuffs. Her finger tip veil was caught to a heart shaped brim and she carried a bouquet of carnation and delphinium.

The bridesmaid, Miss Elizabeth Evans, of Murphysboro, wore a gown of aqua marquisette and carried white carnations and larkspur. Wendell Johaningsmeir, brother of the groom attended the bridegroom as best man, and Warren Halloway and Morris Bradley, cousins of the bride were ushers.

Special music was presented by Miss Jean Peters, of Kansas City, who sang "Because" and "Through the Years."

A reception followed the wedding in the church parlors. Pouring at the tea table were Misses Katherine and Ruth Minto, sisters of the bride. Mrs. William L. Strahan cut her friend's wedding cake.

The bride is a graduate of Antioch Township High school and of the University of Illinois. The groom is a graduate of York High school in Elmhurst and a graduate of the University of Illinois, a member of Alpha Kappa Lambda fraternity and was recently discharged from the U. S. Hard to Grow
The popular spinach is the most difficult of all greens to grow. It is very particular about the temperature, richness and acidity of the soil. Spinach should be planted early in enriched land that has been under cultivation for two or three years.

Tropical Forest
Primitive natives live in the tropical forests of Central America. About two-fifths of all Latin America from the Rio Grande south is forest-covered, the largest area of timbered land in the world.

Bottom Up
When you wash painted walls and woodwork, remember to start at the bottom and work up. When the warm water trickles down over soiled walls, the path it makes is hard to wash off.

Name Cantaloupes
Cantaloupes are so named after Cantalupo, Italy where the melons were first grown in Europe.

II. PROGRAM OF STUDIES

Regular classes were held for nine months from the Kindergarten through the 8th grade.

The Kindergarten was operated in the mornings only. The program developed at this level was designed primarily to help the children adjust themselves to other children and adults. They were taught to work and play together and given practice in inhibiting any undesirable tendencies.

From the 1st grade through the 3rd grade the following studies were covered intensively: Reading, arithmetic, spelling, writing, health and art. Throughout the lower grades much emphasis was placed upon reading. Realizing too many children were having difficulty with reading, more phonic training was introduced this year to aid the child in hearing sounds in words and seeing their printed equivalents. A Nature Study or Science program to suit the grade level was developed from the 2nd grade up through the upper grades.

From the 4th grade through the 8th grade history and geography were added to the above list of studies. A detailed study of our form of government, both local and national, was given in the 7th and 8th grades.

A period was given to music in all grades; and throughout the year the children derived much pleasure from working in either the chorus, band, jazz band, or rhythm band.

A twenty-five minute period was devoted each afternoon to Physical Education. This program was planned and supervised by the teachers of the various grades and carried on outdoors most of the time.

Recluse Hides Her Money Too Carefully, Police Say

WASHINGTON.—Authorities had $500, a dead mouse and a white chicken feather to show for their efforts one day. And the job wasn't even started.

The job was a search of thousands of assorted packages that nearly overflowed the five-room frame house of Miss Ada Kropp, 52-year-old Tuxedo, Md., recluse.

The object was to find several thousand dollars Miss Kropp said she had tucked away from a $200-a-month income she had received from an estate during the last 20 years.

The search started after Miss Kropp was removed to a hospital in a diabetic coma. It was first believed she was destitute, but she told authorities later of the cache in her home. Officers found the home clogged with packages.

The first 200 parcels yielded $80—mostly in old large-size bills. Little by little more money was discovered. By day's end it totaled approximately $500.

Girl Survives 11-Floor Fall; Nylons Her Worry

NEW YORK.—A 15-year-old girl fell 11 stories recently—and lived, telling hospital attendants to be careful about her nylon stockings.

Police identified the girl as Renata Chapiro and said she was fully conscious when she crashed through the fabric top of an automobile at the end of her fall.

The girl's condition included multiple fractures of both legs, a compound fracture of the right arm, shock and possible internal injuries. Policemen said Renata told them she was looking out of a window of her mother's home when she lost her balance and fell.

THE POCKETBOOK OF KNOWLEDGE

By PILGRIM

Horse Population
The peak of the horse population of the United States was reached in 1915 with 21,431,000. The present horse population as given by the department of agriculture is 8,259,000, the lowest since 1871. The per capita value is given as $57.30, a decline of $8.00 from that of a year earlier. Of mules there were 3,196,000, as of January 1, 1946.

Best Potatoes
The best potatoes are firm and clean, have shallow eyes, and have no cuts, decay or green spots. The green spots occur when potatoes are exposed to light. Potatoes should be stored in a dark place for that reason. When the spots develop, they should be cut out, as they are harmful to eat. The remainder of the damaged potato is perfectly good, however.

Busy Port
In prewar years over 50 steamship services operated in Baltimore's foreign and domestic trades, and about 500 concerns were interested in export and import business. Together with the industrial fleets and tramp ships, about 20 million tons of water-borne commerce were carried to and from the port, valued at over a half billion dollars.

Igloo Myth
Most Eskimos do not live in igloos. In fact, over half the Eskimos in the world have never seen an igloo and only about one-quarter actually use igloos for winter living quarters.

Holds Fat
A little salt sprinkled in the pan before putting in the fat helps to prevent the fat from spattering when meat is fried.

Raw Potatoes
When raw potatoes are called for in a recipe such as in scallop or soup, the peelings should be kept very thin. Also, they should be peeled just before cooking and not allowed to soak in water. If the potatoes must be peeled ahead of time, they should be put in salted water. The best way to serve all potatoes is quick-cooked and steaming hot. The longer they stand in the air, the more vitamin C they lose.

Easier Dishwashing
Cut down on time consumed in dishwashing by keeping a small pail or other container filled with cool sudsy water standing on the drainboard or work table. As mixing spoons, egg beaters, knives, and other utensils are soiled, drop them in the container to soak. There will be no need for hard rubbing and scouring later when they are washed with the rest of the dishes. This plan also saves soap.

Climatic Change
In the light of old descriptions of Libya as a "bread basket for imperial Rome," there is reason to believe that climatic conditions have changed sharply through the centuries. Today, production comes only from coastal and other oases and from occasional fertile strips of green. In these areas, however, grains, fruits, olives, almonds, and other Mediterranean produce grow well. Livestock also is successful in places.

No Glass Slipper
Cinderella did not lose a glass slipper. According to the Encyclopedia Britannica, a mistake was made in translating the story from the French, in which Cinderella dropped a fur slipper on the palace stairs.

Renews Walls
Brush a thin, warm starch solution on painted walls after they've been cleaned. It gives them a nice gloss, and, better still, it acts as a buffer. Dirt will cling to it instead of the painted surface. Whenever it looks soiled, you can wash it off quickly, without having to use a strong cleaning compound, and renew it easily. The solution is boiled starch, as you would make for the laundry, thinned down to a watery consistency. Brush it on to form a very thin, transparent wall coating.

Nourish Soil
Where a soil is rich in earthworms, their dying bodies each year furnish valuable animal matter to the soil, in some cases more than 500 pounds an acre.

Compost Pile
Leaves and other organic matter that accumulate during the winter are beneficial to the compost pile.

Use Trams
A recent survey in Philadelphia showed that only 8.4 per cent of the people traveling into the downtown area come in private automobiles. The rest ride in street cars, trackless trolley coaches, gas buses, railroads or walk.

LAKE VILLA

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet on Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 7 with Mrs. Gunnarson at her home in Venetian Village.

The material for the new ceiling for the church auditorium is on hand and as soon as men are available, the work will go on. Other improvements are being planned for the near future.

Loretta Lynn, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Pedersen, of Pelee Lake, was baptized at the church Sunday afternoon by the Rev. Pierson.

The local fire department was called to Camp Cutten on Hastings Lake on Sunday afternoon when a grass fire which had started from a rubbish blaze threatened to get beyond control.

Lake Villa fire department has set dates of Aug. 23, 24 and 25 as the time for their annual carnival at the park with its usual attractions and entertainment for young and old, so plan to be there to meet your friends. Deep Lake and Cedar Lake associations held their carnival last weekend and drew good attendance from both neighborhoods as well as our city visitors.

More than 50 votes were cast at the schoolhouse last Saturday afternoon on the question of consolidation of Monaville and Lake Villa school-districts. Voting here was for consolidation and at Monaville it was against it. However, another election will be held.

Rev. John DeVries, pastor here two years ago, and his family of Portage Park, called on friends here Sunday afternoon. They now have three children, Jeanne, Donald and Eileen.

EFFINGER-WATERS

William Effinger, second son of Mr. and Mrs. John Effinger and Miss Carol Waters, of Antioch, were married on Saturday evening, July 13th, at 8 o'clock at St. Ignatius Episcopal church at Antioch by Rev. McKay in the presence of many relatives and friends. The bride wore a white suit with brown accessories and a corsage of orchids, and her attendant, her sister, Miss Lucille Waters wore a gray gown with tea-rose corsage. Jack Effinger attended his brother as best man. Mrs. Deborah Van Patten, of Antioch, played the wedding music and Mrs. Helen Carlson sang. A reception for relatives and friends was held at the bride's home following the ceremony and the young couple enjoyed a few days honeymoon destination unknown, before he resumed his duties at the Petersen general store here. Both are graduates of Antioch high school and the groom served overseas in the navy until this spring. They received many useful and beautiful gifts for use in the apartment over the Petersen store where they are now living.

Mrs. Inga Swanson left Monday with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bjorstedt, of Waukegan, on a trip to Casco, Maine, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Pollard, for two weeks. They went by automobile.

Mrs. Clifton Bray spent last Wednesday with her daughter, Mrs. McNamara at Grayslake.

Mrs. Dan Boyer was a Chicago visitor last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wagner and family have moved to their new home on Burnett Avenue and will finish it as materials are available. The Leonard house they vacated is being occupied by the Willson family.

Glass Coffee-Maker

If the glass coffee-maker has been sitting neglected on the top shelf of the kitchen cupboard simply because the filter refuses to stay in place while the coffee is brewing—bring it down and put it to work. A new glass filter is on the market which cannot bob up, wobble or fall out while the coffee is being made.

Wax Casters

If furniture casters are waxed it will help prevent ugly marks on the floor.

As we were saying-----

By Jack and Louie

Howdy Folks: A farmer on the edge of town has trouble with his roosters. They refuse to crow on standard time since daylight saving was abolished.

He should raise more hens. He could set them.

And over in Lake Villa a farmer is reported to have fed his cows bird seed so he could sell cheap milk.

They report, also, he has a helper so clumsy he's always getting in the whey.

If our conscience would allow us, we might even tell you about the duck that got smaller and smaller. He grew down.

You can go right down the line and you'll never find a better cleaning service than we offer you.

Try it and see for your self.

How Your Television "Commercial" Will Look

To enhance an impressive list of manufacturing "firsts," Chevrolet now engages in another pioneering venture as the first motor car manufacturer to sponsor a regular commercial television show. Admittedly an exploratory venture to evaluate the possibilities of television as an advertising medium, these broadcasts were the first employing live talent to be sponsored by any automobile producer. Four weekly shows were staged by Chevrolet and broadcast through the facilities of the American Broadcasting Company's television network. The shows were televised at the Dumont Studios in New York for the three stations currently teamed in the ABC television network. Shown above is a scene from the second of the series, a half-hour program titled "Roads to Romance."

MAKING HEADWAY ON A BIG JOB

We want to report that our $3,000,000 rural telephone program is moving right along. We're now putting in rural telephones at a faster rate than ever before in our history. To do that we are installing new rural lines and switchboards at an increasing pace. There is still much to be done, of course, and it will be some time before every one has service who wants it. But we are well on our way.

War's Casualties Range From Auk to Whales

WASHINGTON.—The interior department reported that "thousands of auks, murrens, puffins, sea gulls and ducks" perished during the war along with "unknown quantities of whales."

The birds were victims of oil on the sea "which penetrates the feathers and ruins them as waterproof coverings." (That means they sank.)

The whales were said to "have been killed in the course of submarine warfare." And the whale is, the department reminded, "the most valuable animal in existence."

The report on wildlife casualties was published in the annual accounting of the work done by various agencies in the department headed by Harold L. Ickes.

Other points:
1. Continental fish and wildlife may well have benefited by the cut-down on hunting and fishing during the war.

2. De-jungleizing of Pacific islands destroyed many nesting grounds for sea birds "and has perhaps even extinguished at least two species, the laysan island rail and the laysan island finch."

3. The war pulled a lot of men out of the fish and wildlife service and here is a good field for "returned war veterans seeking to establish themselves in civilian life."

Babies on German Farms
BRUNSWICK, GERMANY.—British war crime investigators announced the completion of an inquiry into one of the Nazis' most revolting crimes—the methodical murder by "wilful neglect" on two "baby farms" of 462 infants. Sixteen men and three women have been arrested for trial.

The investigators said the children were judged under Nazi policy to have been born illegitimately to slave laborers working on farms and in the Volkswagen (German jeep) factory near Brunswick.

They were separated from their mothers at the ages of 10 days to three months and placed in two farms at the villages of Velpke and Ruehen. Out of 114 put in wooden huts at Velpke, 92 died. All 370 died who were in corrugated iron sheds at Ruehen.

The British report said the babies were kept in crude cribs which were seldom if ever cleaned.

Drying Boots

To speed up the drying of wet boots, cut sections from an old automobile tire and tack them on a wall to hold rubber boots in an inverted position. When the boots are hung this way, the air can circulate in and around the boots and then can drain completely if they are wet.

Food Poisoning....

different persons have differing degrees of resistance.

In most outbreaks of food poisoning improperly prepared or improperly kept foods are to blame. The foods become contaminated in several ways. Sometimes the person preparing them is ill or convalescing from an illness and may be harboring dangerous bacteria. Rats carry some of the bacteria that causes food poisoning and form an important source of infection.

There have been some outbreaks caused by infection from rats virus put out to destroy rats. Roaches, flies and other insects also are disease carriers.

The best way to avoid food poisoning is constantly to keep in mind the importance of strictly fresh meats, poultry and sea foods. It also is important to be sure that prepared food is consumed early.

Other important factors are adequate refrigeration, protection of stored food from contamination by rats, boiling of home-canned fruits and vegetables for 15 minutes and inspection of bought canned foods.

Consumers should be particularly careful to reject canned goods if there is a bulge in the end of the can.

Personal cleanliness and washing of the hands when handling food in any situation should, of course, be a common practice.

So enjoy the summer salads, the outdoor picnics and the casualness of summer living. But remember also that summer is the season dearly loved by food-contaminating bacteria, and take all possible precautions against serving food that might in any way be contaminated.
